About Sprout

Sprout was founded in late 2017 in the capital of Germany, Berlin. Not long after, Sprout decided to join the ESD, the German federation of esports to actively help shape a healthy development of esports. Currently, their major focus is their CSGO Team. The present line-up has already accomplished grand titles, on both international and national grounds. Sprout remain the untouched German champions for three consecutive seasons already, scoring the last title in the beginning of the year. Besides that, the active roster stood their ground at the United Pro Series as well as the European Development Championship, season 2, emerging with the gold medal. Another great accomplishment was set just recently as Sprout took the chance and paved the way for German talent promotion majorly and, with that, set a vast milestone for German esports history. Sprout has taken a young and promising talent under their wing, utilizing a spot in a renown German sports school, and allowing him to join their active roster. In doing so, Sprout can contribute to German talent promotion in a responsible way.
